

Consent for Drug and/or Alcohol Testing

Upon acceptance of employment with Aircraft Worker Worldwide (hereinafter referred to as AWW), you will be working in an environment containing machinery and equipment that can cause bodily injury to yourself and others. In the interest of employee safety you will be required to pass a pre-employment urinalysis for drugs and/or alcohol requiring a negative result before you can begin employment with AWW. This test is a standard part of the application process for the position in which you are applying.

I _____ have been fully informed by my potential employer of the reason for this test. I understand that my employment is contingent upon a negative drug and/or alcohol test result and I do hereby freely give my consent for such testing. I also understand that the results will be sent from the testing facility to my employer and the results will become a part of my personnel records.

Should my test render a positive result I understand that my offer of employment with AWW shall be revoked without further notice.

I authorize my results to be released to Aircraft Worker Worldwide
